WASHINGTON, January 18 .- In the Senate a communication was read from Gov. Bramlette, of Kentucky, announcing the rejection of the Constitutional Amendment by that State. It was laid on Numerous petitions were received from military men asking increased pay, which were referred.

A Bill protecting national cemetaries was introduced and read. The Tenure of Office Bill was then taken up. Mr. Sumner, under the license of the vote reported veste day, proceeded in denouncing the President bitterly. Mr. Reverdy Johnson made a point that Mr. Sumner was disqualifying himself from acting in a judiciary capacity should the President come before the Senate.

MUSICAL.

THE NEW CASEET, containing Sparkling Gems, gathered from the works of Handel, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Rossini, and other grea Masters! Also choice selections from eminent American Composers; besides a large complete cellection of Sacred Melodies never published. By G. O. Robinson: Charleston, S. C. 1867. This is a new edition of Professor Robinson's book. When first published in this city in 1855, the CASKET at once became a general favorite with the votaries of sacred music. It was extensively used by the choirs of the churches of various denominations, and we have found it domesticated by the rural fireside in the interior of the State, where it was called regularly into requisition, to assist in the due performance of family worship. As the CASKET contains songs appropriats to every situation or condition in life, it is as much in place now in the days of our trial and sorrow, as in our quondam days of prosperity, when shouts of gladness and of praise resounded through the long-drawn aisles and fretted vaults of our city temples; or from the earnest and picturesque assemblage of a thousand negroes worshipping 'neath the ancient giants of the forest.

The CASKET is useful as a book of instruction in vocal music, and also as a collection of choice tunes. The divisions of the work are as follows: 1. The Elements of Vocal Music. 2. Psalm and Hymn Tunes, in every variety of style. 3. Anthems and Chants. 4. Sabbath School Department. 5. Revival Department. Besides the many original tunes to be found upon its pages, selections from the works of HANDEL, HAYDN, and other celebrated masters, have been arranged expressly for it. The work also contains the most popular tunes of Lowell Mason, Thomas Hast-NOS, W. B. BRADBURY, V. C. TAYLOR, and other cotemporary composers.

Of original Psalmody, we find quite a number of very beautiful airs, composed by the editor, Professor Robinson, who, for over twenty years has enjoyed a distinguished position in this city in all that pertains to sacred music, both vocal and instrumental. To Mr. J. B. WOODBURY also, the CASKET is indebted for many choice pieces. Mr. Ruddick's name we are also pleased to see among the original contributors. Besides these contributions of original pieces, there are many tunes, expressly arranged for this work, from older compositions, some of them universal favorites. Altogether the Casker will prove a great acquisition to all who may be able to appreciate its treasures. We should be pleased to see it made the textbook of singing schools, to the entire exclusion, if possible, of the whole tribe of square and threecornered "patent note" books that abound in the old nasal "Hark from the tomb a doleful sound" style of music. It has already done this in a large part of the country, but in some parts of the up country the conservative spirit,—it would not be polite to call it old fogyism,—has hitherto proved an insuperable obstacle to such a reform. The work is for sale by Mr. H. Slecling, of this the Union was Restored. The following letter, says the Columbus (Ga.) Sun and Times, was found in the streets of Columbia immediately after the army of General SHERMAN had left. The original is still preserved, and can be shown and substantiated, if anybody desires. We can add nothing in the way of comment on such a document. It speaks for itself: CAMP NEAR CAMDEN, S. C., [

CAMP NEAR CAMDEN, S. C., February 26, 1865.

My Dear Wife:—I have no time for particulars. We have had a glorious time in this State. Unrestricted license to burn and plunder was the order of the day. The chivalry have been stripped of most of their valuables. Gold watches, silver pitchers, cups, spoons, forks, &c., are as common in camp as blackberries. The terms of plunder are as follows: The valuables procured are estimated by companies. Each company is required to exhibit the results of its operations at any given place—one-fifth and first choice falls to the share place—one-fifth and first choice falls to the f the commander-in-chief and staff, one-fifth to the corps commanders and stuff, one-fifth to field officers of regiments, and two-fifths to the company.

Officers are not allowed to join these expeditions without disguisting themselves as privates. One of our corps commanders borrowed a suit of rough clothes from one of my men, and was successful in this place. He got a large quantity of silver (among other things an old time milkpitcher), and a very fine gold watch, from a Mr. DeSansayre at this place. DeSaussure is one of DeSaussure, at this place. DeSaussure is one of the F. F. V's of South Carolina, and was made to fork over liberally. Officers over the rank of cap-tain are not made to put their plunder in the estitain are not made to put their plunder in the estimate for general distribution. This is very unfair, and for that reason, in order to protect themselves, subordinate officers and privates keep back everything that they can carry about their persons, such as riugs, ear-rings, breastpins, &c., of which, if I over live to get home, I have about a quart. I am not joking—I have at least a quart of jewelry for you and all the girls, and some No. I diamond increased pins among them. General Sherman rings and pins among them. General Sherman has silver and gold enough to start a bank. His share in gold watches and chains alone at Columbia was two hundred and seventy-five. (275.) bis was two hundred and seventy-five. (275.)

But I said I could not go into particulars. All the general officers and many besides had valuables of every description, down to embroidered ladies' pocket handkerchiefs. (I have my share of them, too.) We took gold and silver enough from the d—d rebels to have redeemed their infernal currency twice over. This (the currency) whenever we come across it, we burned, as we considered it utterly worthless.

ed it utterly worthloss.

I wish all the jewelry this army has could be carried to the "Old Bay State." It would deck her out in glorious style; but alas, it will be scattered all over the North and Middle States. The d-d all over the North and Middle States. The d-d niggers, as a general rule, prefer to stay at home, particularly after they found out that we only wanted the able-bodied men (and, to tell you the truth, the youngest and best-looking women.) Sometimes we took off whole families and plantations of niggers, by way of repaying secessionists. But the useless part of them we soon manage to

The order to march has arrived, and I m st close hurriedly. Love to grandmother and Aunt Charlotte. Take care of yourself and the children. Don't show this letter out of the family.

Your affectionate husband,

THOMAS J. MYERS.

P. S.—I will send this by the first flag of truce to be mailed, unless I have an opportunity of sending it to Hilton Head. Tell Sallie I am saving a pearl bracelet and ear-rings for her; but Lambert got the necklace and breastpin of the same set. I am trying to trade him out of them. These were taken from the Misses Jamisons, daughters of the President of the South Carolina Secession Convention. We found these on our trip through Georgia. This letter was addressed to "Mrs. Thoma. J.

Myers, Boston, Mass." THE New York Evening Post is not one of those who view the late decision of the Supreme Court with concern. It professes rather to find in it a cause of gratulation. Even upon that point in the decision whereon the Judges disagreed it holds the following sensible theory:

"We believe experience during the last six years has abundantly shown the whole country the danger and felly of extraordinary and unusual methods of administering justice; and hereafter we hope the people will oblige their rulers to adhere to the regular forms of law. The United States courts were open in Indiana, and other Northern States, for the trial of criminals. Milligan and others should have been brought before these courts, tried, and punished according to law. There is no doubt that they would have been punished if they were guilty; and such lawful sentence, by constitutional courts, would have allayed, while the unconstitutional trial and sentence by military commissions only excited and exasperated, opposition and hatred to the Government, and thus injured the Union cause." Of course the Tribune and Forner's two papers

From Florida. BIOT AT FERNANDINA. The Fernandina Courier of last Friday gives an account of a riot in that city. It says: Our city, on Monday last, was a scene of rioting and lawlessness unknown before in its history, and came near resulting in the most serious conse quences. We mentioned in last week's issue that the Sheriff, in attempting to execute a writ of eject-ment, was forcibly resisted and thrust out of the ment, was forcibly resisted and thrust out of the house he was endeavoring to take possession of. On Monday, he summoned to his aid a number of the citizens to serve as a posse in executing his writ, and again Paul Crippen, and others of like Radical proclivities, armed some forty or fifty negroes, and hoisting the U. S. flag over the building in dispute, placed them in it, determining to resist the law. This being the state of the case and the Sheriff's force but few in numbers, it was deemed prudent in This being the state of the case and the Sheriff's force but few in numbers, it was deemed prudent, in order to avoid bloodshed, to postpone action until advice could be had with the proper authorities as to the best course to be pursued. Thus the affair stood until evening, when J. T. Frisbie, the Marshal of the city, entered the store of J. Conkling, a peaceable citizen, and behaving in a rude and unbecoming nanner was ordered to leave, and upon his refusal to do so was forced out and the door shut. Frisbie then gave orders to a lot of negroes he had at his bidding to break the doors and sack the building, which was attempted, the doors being cut in with axes, and had not Mayor Riddell, Mr. B. B. Andrews, General Finnegan, and several other gendrews, General Finnegan, and several other gen-tlemen interfered promptly, it certainly would have ended in the most serious consequences. Much credit is due these gentlemen in quelling the riot. This is a simple statement of the facts in the case, and we may well ask the question have we civil law or not? If so, are these things to go unpunished? There are, unfortunately, three or four vile men in our community who call themselves Radicals, and get their living by duping and defrauding the poor negro and pushing them forward in all their dirty work. So long as these wretches are allowed to remain here we may expect disturbances and troubles. All the insolence and i subordination of negroes here come from the teachings and baneful influence of these tri-

SARATOGA "EXCELSIOR" SPRING WATER.

THE WATER OF THIS SPRING IS BELIEVED TO be unequalled by that of any other in the far-famed valley of Saratoga. Its virtues are such as have secured it the high encomiums of all who have used it, possessing, as it does, in an eminent degree, cathartic, diuretic, alterative and tonic qualities.

From SAMUEL HENRY DICKSON, M. D., Professor Practice of Physic, Jesserson Medical College, Philadelphia, formerly of Charleston, S. C.:

PHILADELPHIA, November 15, 1865.

delphia, formerly of Charleston, S. C.:

PHILADELPHIA, November 15, 1865.

I have been for a year or more past in the habit of taking the water of the "Excelsior" Spring of Saratoga. Accustomed during the great portion of my invalid life to use the different waters of the several fountains which boil up along that remarkable valley, dependent, indeed, upon them for much of the comfort I enjoy, I am satisfied that the Excelsior Water is as well adapted as any other among them, if not more so, to the purposes for which they are generally employed. It is very agreeable, strongly impregnated with the carbonic acid, lively and sparking. * * * I can heartily and consectentiously recommend it to all who need a gentle cathartic and diuretic.

SAMUEL HENRY DICKSON, M. D.

The Water is put up in Pint and Quart bottles, and packed in good order for shipping. Pints in boxes of four dozen each, and Quarts in boxes of two dozen each. All orders addressed to A. R. LAWHENCE & CO., Saratoga Springs, N. Y., or No. 47 Warren street, New York City, will be promptly attended to. Sold also by first class Druggists and Hotels.

A FEW WORDS OF COMMON

How few there are who are not subject to some affection of the lungs or respiratory organs, who, by neglecting premonitory symptoms, aggravate the complaint, until disease strikes its shafts, causing inexpressible torture of the patient, and anxiety and distress to friends. "Only a cold!" "A slight sore throat!" is the headless remark of many when so affected. Yes; "Only 1 cold," was the thoughtless expression of thousands whom Death has marked for his prey.

Forewarned—Forearmed! should be the metto forever in the minds of all subject to Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, or Influenza. Words of advice should be headed by all suifering from Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption. Relief iswithin their reach; and, if neglected, fatal consequences ensue—a life of misery—a daily, hourly struggle for exitatence. A contest in which there can be but one victor—Death! How few there are who are not subject to some affection ensue—a lite of misery—a daily, notiny stagge to oristence. A contest in which there can be but one viotor—Death!

Dees it not appal the strongest mind, to think!! the resul caused by neglect? Then why delay? ! Latercuse can be offered, when timely warning is so unded in your ears? When the danger is pointed it, why not avoid tt? Marsepen's Pecronal Balk '19 been usedwith success in nearly a million of cases, and is endorsed by the Medical Faculty as the most prompt and efficaclous remedy that scientific resear-a has discovered, to relieve and cure all cases of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, and Consumption, if the case is not beyond all hope.
Even when the sufferer is it the last stages, he will find relief by using this preparation. One bottle will convince the most incredulous, that the merits of this preparation are by no means exaggerated; in fact, fall far short of the culogies bestowed upon it by thousands who have been cured by its timely use. A guarantee accompanies each bottle and dealers are instructed in every instance to refund the money when this preparation falls to relieve.
